- At COP26, a new ambitious, long-term Just Energy Transition Partnership (JETP) to support the RSA's decarbonization effort was announced.
- JETP aims to help RSA achieve updated NDC emissions goals with initial support of appx. USD 8.5b through mechanisms, including grants, concessional loans, investments, and risk-sharing instruments through both private/public sources
- CIFAU was requested to provide technical coordination services to help facilitate support from key stakeholders to help steer ambitious coal transition reforms on behalf of international partners, for which a budget of USD 0.55m is being requested to cover FY22 costs.

Budget Process

Budget Process

- Planning and Budgeting for new programs very challenging without clarity on
  - When programs enter implementation phase
  - Levels of engagement by various CIF Partners.
- CIF Partners could start budget process only in late November 2021, once new programs received initial contributions, launched in CoP26, and the initial set of countries were selected. Similarly, CTF 2.0 and RSA JET-CAP work program became clearer only in October/November 2021.
- FY22 budget proposal indicated that a supp. budget to cover costs of additional activities for new programs will be requested upon the receipt of sufficient contributions.
