

A photograph of a group of children playing in a dirt street in a developing area. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning. In the foreground, a boy is riding a bicycle towards the right. To his left, a girl is standing with her arms raised. In the background, several other children are playing, some with a long wooden plank. The street is unpaved and has some puddles. The buildings in the background are simple, with some made of stone and others with white walls. Power lines are visible overhead.
